

The Martz Missive

Sons of Confederate Veterans
Col. D. H. Lee Martz Camp Ten, Harrisonburg VA

Volume 16, Issue 12

December 2015

To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we will commit the vindication of the Cause for which we fought. To your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles which he loved and which you love also, and those ideals which made him glorious and which you also cherish. Remember, it is your duty to see that the true history of the South is presented to future generations.

Adjutant's Report

The November 2015 monthly meeting of the Col. D. H. Lee Martz Camp #10, Sons of Confederate Veterans, was held on the 23rd at the Rockingham County Administration Center. The Adjutant had taken attendance as members arrived with the following present: Rod Clark, Leonard Derrer, Randall Fix, Delaney Hopkins, Edwin Karnes, Carl Marshall, Matthew Miller, Roger Miller, Lloyd Monger, Michael Rhodes, Lloyd Sprinkle, Timothy Turner, Jackson Vanhyning, Jason Vanyhyning, Philip Way, Robert Weatherholtz and Thomas Yeakle.

Cmdr. Philip Way called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. Chaplain Lloyd Sprinkle gave the invocation. The camp gave the pledge of allegiance to the American flag and salutes to the Virginia and Confederate flags.

Robert Weatherholtz moved to accept the October adjutant's report as printed in the November newsletter. Motion was seconded and passed.

Treasurer Lloyd Monger read the treasurer's report for November 2015. Randy Fix moved to accept the treasurer's report as read. Motion was seconded and passed.

Officer Reports:

Commanders Communications/Orders:

Cmdr. Way reported the Camp's recruitment advertisement ran in the previous Friday's issue of the Daily News Record.

He reported that Lt. Cmdr. Wayne Orebaugh had a pacemaker implanted today and would be home tomorrow.

Even though he had not returned his license plates to the DMV his registration was still renewed without incident.

Cmdr. Way introduced new Camp 10 members Jason and Jackson VanHyning.

Rod Clark inquired about member renewals and adjutant Turner reported that eight renewals had not been returned and reminder letters with reinstatement forms would be mailed out.

Adjutant Turner also reported sending information for an applicant to transfer to Camp

10 from headquarters Camp #584.

Committee Reports:

Programs & Publicity: Matt Miller has reached out to the Virginia Flaggers for a representative to speak to the Camp but has not received a response.

Discussion was held on an April program. Cmdr. Way will contact past AIC Stephen Ritchie to request he be the April program speaker for Camp 10.

Headstones Markers & Monuments: Cmdr. Way reported John Simmers has been putting up the big flags at Woodbine for the flag days. A Camp member is needed to take over the task. Ed Karnes volunteered to take over putting up the flags at Woodbine.

Cmdr. Way reported that after a site survey he found only nine stones that should be replaced. Delaney and Phil will survey the stones again this weekend. Discussion was held on cutting the previously approved order of twenty stones to ten. Rod Clark moved that the twenty stone order be reduced to ten if the order is not yet in process. Motion was seconded and passed. Leonard Derrer suggested spraying to kill the grass invading the cracks of the concrete in order to reduce weed eater damage to the stones.

Cmdr. Way said for Lee-Jackson Day in January the flags will be put out at Woodbine on the 15th. The Camp meeting will be the 25th.

Cmdr. Way reported that the Dayton town manager has said the Shenandoah Valley Battlefields Foundation may be taking over maintenance of the Meigs site. Rod Clark reported the SVBF may take control of the Coaling site also.

Old Business:

Cmdr. Way reviewed the information for the Lee-Jackson-Maury Day luncheon with the UDC which will be at noon on Saturday Jan 9th at Bridgewater United Methodist Church. The speaker's topic is Matthew Fontaine Maury. Cost per person is $22.

New Business:

Leonard Derrer asked about placing a stone for a Confederate soldier buried in the area behind Eagle Carpet. Rod Clark related a story about a family who treated a wounded soldier from the Battle of Harrisonburg who eventually passed and was reported to have been buried in that area. This story is from a letter in the Good family history.

Commander Way leads new members Jason and Jackson VanHyning through the member induction ceremony. Jason speaks briefly on his ancestors who were the Hatfields.

Rod Clark read an article from the Staunton News Leader Staunton Honored Its Confederate Veteran written by Charles Culbertson.

Rod Clark discussed briefly that the Battle of Brock's Gap state highway marker is missing.

Robert Weatherholtz moved the meeting be closed. Motion was seconded and passed. Chaplain Sprinkle gave a benediction and the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted by Adj. Tim Turner
